'Masterstead, Forest Stead and Sheep Farm - 1400-1850'

Peeblesshire Archaeological Society's Excavations at Shootinglee 2012-22

Public Lecture

by

Dr Piers Dixon

University of Stirling and Peeblesshire Archaeological Society

Thursday 7th March at 7.30 pm. at St Joseph's Neighbourhood Centre, Rosetta Road, Peebles

Lying some 4km south of Traquair, Shootinglee was the seat of a warden of the Ettrick Forest during the 15th century and the 16th – 17th century house of the Stewarts of Shootinglee at the forest stead of that name. In his talk, Piers will describe the results of the Society's long-running fieldwork project at the site. Now at the final research and report-writing stage following the completion of the excavations, the project is set to be a significant contribution to our understanding of the rural settlement record in southern Scotland during the Late and Post-Medieval periods.

BOOKING A SEAT

St Joseph's Neighbourhood Centre has a maximum seating capacity of 70 and we anticipate that this event will be popular. Seats cost £6 per person. You can just turn up on the evening and pay at the door but to be sure of getting a seat, please book in advance using this form. Once you've booked and paid, all you need to do is give us your name on arrival and we'll check you off our list.

MAKING A DONATION

This event is being organised as a fundraiser for PAS to help with the costs of specialist analyses of the finds recovered from the excavations at Shootinglee. All the proceeds from the evening will go towards this research and we would be immensely grateful if you would consider donating to this important project.
