Peeblesshire Archaeological Society

Lectures 2026 2027

17th September, 7.30 pm. St Joseph's
Finlaggan & the Kingdom of the Isles
Dr David Caldwell, former Keeper of History & Archaeology, National Museums Scotland

15th October, 7.30 pm. St Joseph's
The Horsehope Craig Hoard Revisited
Trevor Cowie, Chair, Peeblesshire Archaeological Society

5th November, 7.30 pm. Eastgate Theatre*
Ness of Brodgar Revealed
Nick Card, Director, Ness of Brodgar Project

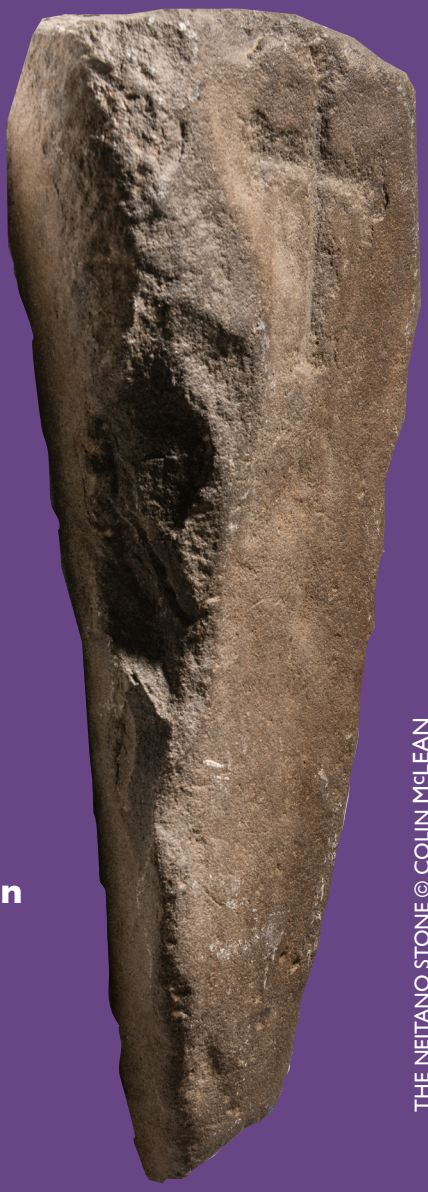

19th November, 7.30 pm. St Joseph's
PALaEoScot: Ecological Approaches to Scotland's Oldest Archaeology
Prof Kate Britton, Department of Archaeology, School of Geoscience, University of Aberdeen

15th December, 7.30 pm. Eastgate Theatre
Roman Scotland: Life on the Edge of Empire
Dr Fraser Hunter, Principal Curator, Iron Age & Roman Collections, National Museums Scotland

21st January, 7.30 pm. St Joseph's
Christianity comes to Scotland: Exploring Late Antiquity in the Borders
Dr Adrián Maldonado, Project Curator, National Museums Scotland

18th February, 7.30 pm. St Joseph's
Visible Invisibles: Women in Roman Archaeology
Dr Rebecca Jones, Keeper of Scottish History & Archaeology, National Museums Scotland

18th March, 7.30 pm. St Joseph's
The Silk Roads in Central Asia – The Lost Heart of the World
Prof Tim Williams, Emeritus Professor of Silk Road Archaeology, University College London

THE NEITANO STONE © COLIN McLEAN

All lectures, unless otherwise indicated, are held at St Joseph's Neighbourhood Centre, Rosetta Road, Peebles EH45 8JU
Guests: £5 (at the door), PAS members free
* Public Lecture. Tickets available online from the Eastgate Theatre
 Halkett Hendrie Memorial Lecture hosted with the Tweeddale Society

Exploring our past together

Join PAS here